To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir.—The International Suffrage Alliance, representing twenty-two countries of the world, has the following table of principles:

"1. That men and women are born equally free and independent members of the human race; equally endowed with intelligence and ability, and equally entitled to the free exercise of their individual rights and liberty.

"2. That the natural relation of the sexes is that of interdependence and co-operation, and that the repression of the rights and liberty of one sex inevitably works intury to the other, and hence to the whole race.

"3. That in all lands those laws,

DISCUSS NEW CHARTER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va., February 2.—A meeting of citizens was held in the Town Hall this evening, and the bill providing for a new charter for the town of Ashland, which has been introduced in the Legislature, was thoroughly discussed.

There is considerable opposition to certain features of the proposed charter, and a committee was appointed to confer with the Council in an effort to bridge all differences. The committee is composed of the following: Hill Carter, Leslie Ellis, E. B. Cox, John G. Tiller, E. W. Newman and N. H. Gardner.
